Keep your learners on track with a comprehensive dashboard and automated email alerts.

Time Saving Administration

The time-savings to manage our training with the Next Level LMS might be as high as 75 percent.

Role Based Learning

Present courses and learning paths specific to the roles in your organization. All training is automatically assigned to the right learners at the right time based on their roles.

Course Assembly

Easily assemble courses using your existing, purchased, or newly created content. Content can include SCORM, Video, Audio, PDFs, Flash, HTML5, Web Links, and any other web resource. Blend in Instructor Led Training from classrooms or webinars.

Customized Reporting

Monitor your training programs with a suite of customizable reports and graphical charts that will clearly highlight training compliance and completions to make sure that everyone is on track. Schedule automatic delivery of reports to selected team managers.

Thousands of Courses

Sometimes you don't need to re-invent the wheel. Purchase courses on an as-needed basis through an integrated elearning marketplace. Buy a single course or enough for your entire staff right from the Next Level course catalog.

Meaningful Reports

When we prepare for an audit, we're not spending hours of additional labor to find, organize and present certificates of completion. We do it in a few minutes with the reports in Next Level LMS

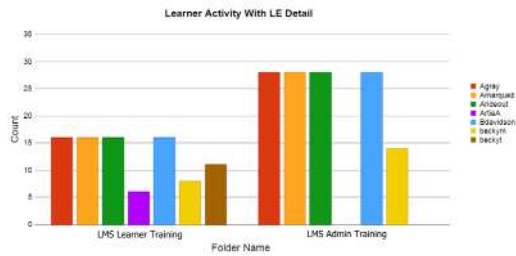

The Data that you Need

- Instant insight into your training programs
- Visual Dashboard with at-a-glance summaries
- Easily drill down from summary to detail
- Automated email report delivery on your schedule
- Filter your reports and charts by teams, roles, content, and more
- 10 Report Types with unlimited variants that can be saved for quick reuse
- Easily export data to PDF, Excel, or CSV

Customizable Interface

Next Level LMS is a great solution - easy to customize, integrated social features and a breeze to configure. Good documentation and the support team is outstanding

Customize your Layout

The Next Level LMS's content management platform takes white label branding to a whole new level by allowing complete control over your layout and presentation. You can design the learner's experience from the moment they land on your home page.

Implementation Management

We are still in the implementation phase with Next Level and the support has been top-notch. I would highly recommend Next Level to any company looking to implement a new Learning Management System.

Relax. With Next Level LMS, you're not alone.

The beginning of your LMS project can be tough. Where to start? What needs to be done? What challenges can we expect? How do we stay on track? Have we thought of everything?

Let our experts guide you through the process.

- A dedicated implementation team will help organize and monitor your goals and deliveries.
- An online project management application will list all tasks, ownership, dependencies, and completion dates.
- Gantt reports to visually monitor task status throughout the process
- Regularly scheduled meetings to review progress and keep your implementation on track

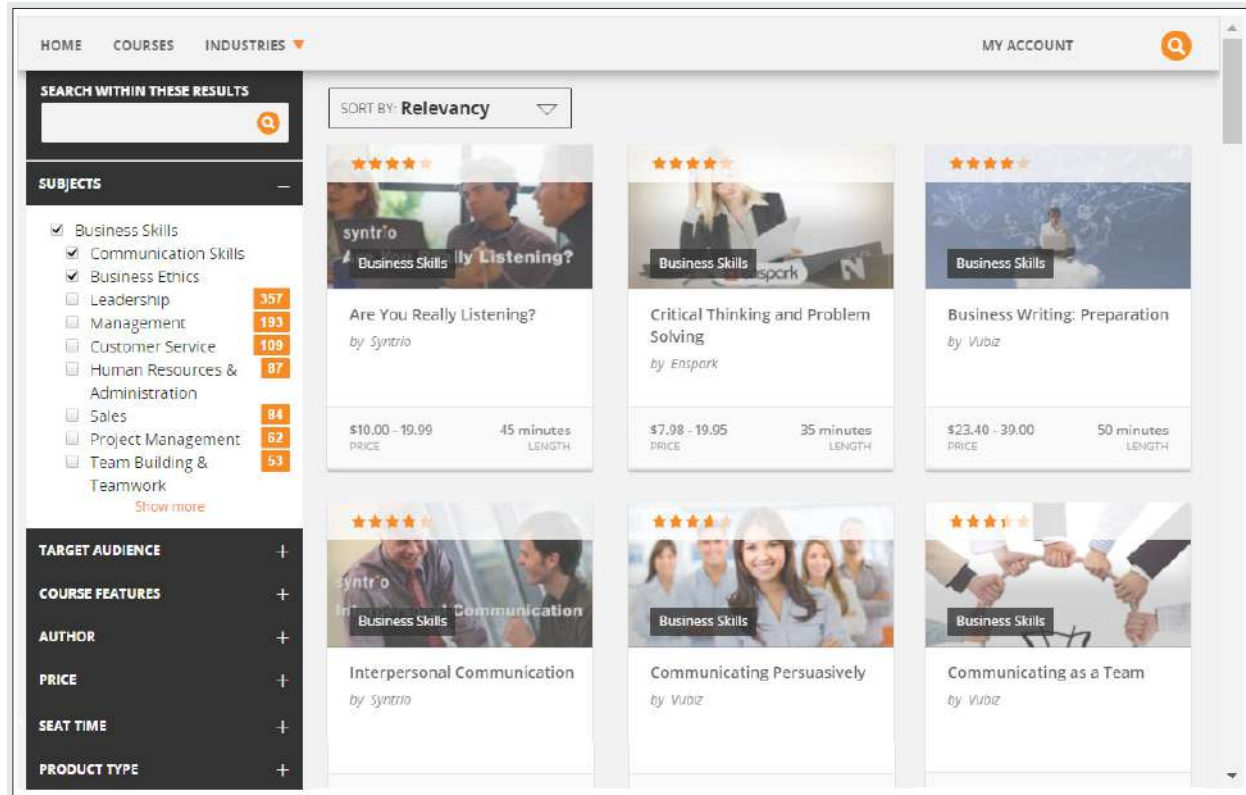

At this point, week two into our go-live I'm very happy. Next Level is easy to use, support has been great and the system appears so robust that it should meet every demand we place on it.

More than 20,000 Courses Available

Simply browse the integrated marketplace and add the courses you want to your shopping cart. Upon purchase, the new courses will synch with your course catalog for immediate assignment along with your existing courseware, instructor led training or other digital assets. It's that easy.

Instant access to Business and Mission Critical Topics

- Microsoft Office
- Office Safety
- Customer Support
- HIPAA
- Ethics
- Sexual Harassment
- Business Accounting
- ADA Compliance

Our integrated marketplace offers the broadest, deepest, freshest catalog of business training courses in the world. With more than 20,000 courses from the world's leading publishers, you can easily find the perfect blend of courses to meet your business needs.

Everything you need...

You can try them all, but at the end of the day, for the price you can't beat it. I evaluated several LMS systems but went with Next Level for a variety of reasons. ... Great product!!
